

Frank WILLIAMS

Frank was a native Sonoma County resident, born in Bodega at his grandparents' Cypress Knolls Ranch. He attended Watson Elementary School and Tomales High School. His family moved from Bodega in the 1940's to their own ranch on Hall Road where he ran his own dairy. In 1949 he married Dolores Mori and built her a new home as his wedding gift on land from the Hall Road Ranch and soon after changed occupations becoming a carpenter, a career that lasted 37 years. Frank was on the Oak Grove School Board and an active member of the local Farm Bureau. In 1981, upon retirement, Frank and Dolores moved to Fallon, Nevada where they ranched 60 acres of alfalfa. Frank served on the Lahontan Conservation District Board and Truckee-Carson Irrigation District. In 1999 he and Dolores moved back to Sonoma County, purchasing a home on Melita Road. He was a member of the Moose, YMI and the Westside Group. He was preceded in death by his wife, Dolores, his sister, Dorothy Morris Whitlatch and his grandson, Dustin Fiori. He is survived by his daughters, Donna Fiori (Ken) of Penngrove and Sandie Halpin (Tim) of Eureka, Nevada as well as three grandsons: Luke Halpin (Stephanie) of Anthem, Arizona; Jayme Halpin (Stacy) of Eureka, Nevada; and Jason Fiori of San Diego; as well as two great grandchildren, Samantha and Casen Halpin. His family invites friends and relatives to attend a service to honor his 89 years of life on Saturday, February 9, 2013 at 10:30 a.m. at LAFFERTY & SMITH COLONIAL CHAPEL, 4321 Sonoma Highway, Santa Rosa, CA. Private entombment, Calvary Catholic Cemetery, Santa Rosa. In lieu of flowers, the family suggest donations may be made to the Dustin Fiori Memorial Scholarship Fund, c/o Santa Rosa Junior College Foundation, 1501 Mendocino Ave, Santa Rosa, CA 95401 or to Hanna Boy's Center.

Published in the Press Democrat from February 6 to February 9, 2013